

Who is Your Pilot?

One of thoughtful mind could not set forth upon a voyage across the ocean without experiencing some solemn thoughts concerning the seriousness of the undertaking. All may be gaily as the great ship moves away from the harbor. There may have been joyful and merry songs of good-by; nevertheless, the voyager knows that the issues of the journey are at best uncertain. He has trusted himself to an element which may bring him to the fulfillment of his desire, or may furnish him with his final resting place. Truly, it would be a vain person who could be altogether oblivious to these things. With the spiritual man, all of this is true, and more, too. Every man in a large measure has the ordering of his own life. While he does not know the scenes into which the passing days or weeks may lead him, it is his to choose his pilot, his to choose whether his course shall be toward the City of Peace, or away from it. The question comes to us with much seriousness at this hour: "Who is to be our pilot?" Is it to be your desire for wealth, for pleasure, for honor? God forbid that any of these should be your governing motive. God forbid that there should be any desire in your heart but that of doing the bidding of Him who sends you forth.

One of the Last Acts.

The Fifty-eighth Congress, among its last acts, passed a bill authorizing the return of Confederate battle-flags held at Washington, to the several States. Commenting upon this act, and the unanimity with which it went through both houses of Congress, Gen. Stephen D. Lee, Commander in Chief of the United Confederate Veterans, says: "I would be derelict in my duty not to give expression to the satisfaction that fills the heart of every Confederate veteran for the unanimity with which the National Legislature passed the bill restoring the Confederate battle flags to the several States and the readiness with which the measure was approved by the President. This action of fresh evidence that there are now in our grand country no sectional lines—no South, no North, East or West—but we are all Americans, devoted to our common country. And I urge upon all parties, North or South, who have control in their possession, to return them at once to the State Capitals."

Son Born to Governor and Mrs. Beckham.

John Crepe Wickliffe Beckham, Jr., made his initial bow to the big world on March 21 at Norton Infirmary, Louisville. Gov. Beckham is delighted with his new son, and great hopes are entertained for the future of this young scion of a race of Governors. If there is anything in heredity J. C. W. Beckham, Jr., will be well justified in regarding the "chair" with favor and appreciation. He is the great-grandson, great-nephew and the son of Governors, his great-uncle, Robert Wickliffe, having been Governor of Louisiana for one term, making himself so generally beloved that to the present day he is affectionately spoken of there as Governor Bob. May the babe grow strong in mind and body, become a great man like unto his fathers and do honor to the State in coming years.

Funeral Car Wrecked.

While descending a hill on the Lancaster and Southern Railroad, a trolley car, bearing a funeral party, got beyond control and was wrecked at the foot of the hill. Not one of the twenty-one persons aboard escaped injury.

COUNTY ATTORNEY WILL BRING SUIT.

Says Fayette Has Deprived Breathitt of All its Officers.

County Attorney W. H. Blanton, of Breathitt county, in an interview with a reporter for The Herald, stated that he intended to bring suit against Fayette county in the Federal Court for depriving Breathitt county of its officers without appointing temporary officers to take their places. He says: "Now that Fayette county has assumed guardianship of Breathitt county, it has not done its duty as guardian." As a result of the Court of Appeals granting Fayette county jurisdiction in the cases of the Hargises and Callahan and the application for bail of the prisoners every officer of Breathitt county has been summoned to Fayette county as witnesses in the trial, and the citizens of Breathitt county are totally without protection. If a killing had occurred at Jackson or in Breathitt county last night there would not have been an officer in the county before which the warrant could have been sworn out or by whom, if sworn out, could have been executed. Those officers in Breathitt county who were in Lexington last night as a result of the trial are: County Judge James Hargis and Sheriff Callahan, locked up in the county jail; County Attorney W. H. Blanton, a witness; T. H. Hudson, Deputy County Clerk, the County Clerk is away from Jackson on business; M. A. Spencer, Deputy Sheriff; Election Commissioners James Brophy and M. S. Crane, are here as witnesses. There has been no Magistrate appointed in the place of Squire Edwards. "It would be an excellent time for a reign of terror to begin, with no one to stop it," says County Attorney Blanton. "One drunken man could do enough damage to have Breathitt county published to the world, and there would be no officers in Jackson to bring him to justice."—Lexington Herald, March 22.

The Commonwealth is now having occasion to decide which would be better for the county, officers or no officers.

Getting Acquainted.

Success in business is largely a matter of getting acquainted—learning the needs and tastes of your customers and making them familiar with yourself, your establishment, your methods and your wares. You cannot get acquainted with the purchasing public in a day, or even a month; it takes time to make yourself "solid," but it is worth while. By cultivating the acquaintance of possible buyers day after day through the advertising columns of the newspapers you establish a basis of confidence that yields constantly increasing returns, and that will in the long run be worth more as an asset than money in the bank.—Philadelphia Record.

If business men would be going all the while and adding largely to their trade they must talk through the local papers. Should they do this wisely there would be no time for talking a city or town dead.

The lumbermen in this county are growing more active each year on account of the growing scarcity of timber. They go into the woods and cut only the most valuable timber, leaving only the worthless trees for the farmer's own use. Our advice is, hold on to your trees. Unless you have considerable woodland you will need those trees before long for the improvement of your farm and home.

End Comes to Veteran Paducah Newspaper Man.

In the death of James P. Thompson Paducah loses one of its oldest and best-known newspaper men. Mr. Thompson died March 21.

Mr. Thompson was born in Louisville Sept. 20, 1844. In 1854 he moved with his parents to Wadesboro, Calloway county, and two years later the family came to Paducah. Mr. Thompson has resided there ever since. In early life he was engaged in the mercantile business and later he owned a job printing office.

In 1871 he established the Paducah News, which was for a time the only newspaper in Paducah. T. C. Ballard who died there several

There was a time when tallow candles cost ten cents each and gave less than one-twentieth of the illumination for a dollar that gas gives.

There was a time, and very recently, when gas, per unit of illumination (candle power), cost the public double what it now does.

There was a time (still more recently) when there was no electric light turning right into day.

There was a time when we were satisfied to travel four miles an hour in an omnibus or horse car without light or heat or transfers, and pay six to ten cents for what we now get for five cents with light and heat, and with speed doubled.

There was a time when we thought it was a great thing to be able to telephone to a friend for fifteen cents, and yet we are not satisfied.—American Grocer.

Secrecy in Beef Trust Investigation.

Fifteen secret service men were sent to Chicago to guard the witnesses who testified before the special grand jury in the investigation of the transactions of the so-called "Beef Trust." So great was the Queer Ruling in Kentucky.

A Kentucky court has in its wisdom seen fit to convict Richard W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Evening Post, of criminal libel and to fine him $500. The arguments of the prosecution, which the court sustained, show a remarkable conception of a newspaper's rights and duties.

Mr. Knott was accused of defaming one, Sharkey, keeper of an all-night saloon, by saying that his place was a resort of gamblers and crooks, and was protected by the police who knew his character.

On the stand Sharkey admitted that he allowed gambling in the saloon. The prosecution attempted no defense of Sharkey, but gravely contended that a newspaper must not publish any facts it may have concerning an evil resort. It must submit them to the authorities.

To this Mr. Knott replied that the police were in collusion with Sharkey, and an appeal to them would have been a mere farce. Then, said the sapient prosecutor, the remedy lies in an appeal to the electorate to choose honest public servants. How much an appeal can be made effective without a recital of facts showing official corruption, the learned gentleman did not say.

If the finding of the court be good law every dive-keeper and gambler and every grafting officeholder in Kentucky ought to rejoice. But every fearless honest editor in the State will regard with wrath and astonishment a decision that smacks more of Turkish than of American ideas.—The Fourth Estate. (N. Y.)

An Editor Willing to Represent His County.

J. D. Wyatt, editor of the Ewing Equirer, makes announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature. Mr. Wyatt says:

"With unspeakable pride we doff our hat and make our best bow to the five hundred and odd petitioners of old Fleming, and enter the fight for the office of Representative—an office that bears with it no dividend on the investment, if the holder carries with him the title to which his people elevate him.

We promise to conduct the campaign on a high plane.

We have no personal aspirations, nor have we any political debts to pay, but enter the race at the behests of over five hundred petitioners, numerous letters from over the county and personal assurance of loyal support."

Louisville Will Boom.

Five topics of interest to the citizens of Louisville were discussed at the open meeting of the Commercial Club, which was held at the Galt House Tuesday night. At that time all the commercial organizations of the city were the guests of the Commercial Club.

The programme was announced by John J. Saunders, chairman of

When business men take an interest in the affairs of a city as they are doing in Louisville something is sure to come to pass. Louisville, Kentucky, may make the largest and most important commercial city of the States.

Are They Worth $16,000.

Congress allowed Hunter, Edwards and White each two thousand dollars for election purposes in the row over the seat from the Eleventh District. This, added to the ten thousand which Hunter will draw as salary, makes sixteen thousand dollars paid for the district to be represented in that body.

The question that most concerns the people is this: "Are the services of the three worth $16,000?" Were that district declared vacant for a term would most likely be better for the people.

Serious.

The observing editor of the Lancaster Record remarks: It is stated that 20 per cent of the telephone girls marry every year. As a matter of course. Did you ever hear of a girl qualifying herself to make a living that some beast of a man didn't want to marry her? With all due respect to the male contingent of the human race, we must say that there are more men looking for wives who can support them than there are women on the lookout for husbands.

Confederate Veterans to Meet.
The United Confederate Veterans will meet in Louisville during the week of June 12-17, 1905. Louisville is preparing to give the Veterans and their families a hearty welcome, this being their second encampment in this city. NOT A PATENT MEDICINE Hyomel, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Prescribed by Physicians.

No one should confound Hyomel with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomel gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Its base is the valuable eucalyptol oil, famous for its antiseptic qualities. This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid, which when used in the Hyomel pocket inhaler, fills the air you breathe with germ-killing, disease destroying and healing powers that kills all catarrhal germs there may be in the throat, nose and lungs.

How foolish it is to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids. The only natural way to cure this disease and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomel.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomel is now sold by W. S. Lloyd under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomel. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs $1.00 and comprises an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomel and a dropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hyomel can be obtained for 50 cents. [Mar-8-20]

A WOMAN'S BACK.
The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Mt. Sterling Citizen is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Mt. Sterling women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. Mary Kelley, wife of Peter Kelley, farmer, living just outside the city limits on the Winchester pike, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were so beneficial and positive in their results [that] I am compelled to place great faith in them. I was troubled to quite an extent and with a complication of kidney troubles. The symptoms were so marked as to leave no possibility of doubt in my mind as to what kind of medicine I required so on noticing some testimonials of the strongest kind, endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills, my husband procured a box for me at F. C. Duerson's drug store. On taking them I was convinced that the advertised statements concerning Doan's Kidney Pills were nothing short of the truth, for this good preparation absolutely performed what it promised. I can speak positively about the results obtained and will be only too pleased to give minutely particulars to any lady who wishes them. My husband also used Doan's Kidney Pills and found the results entirely satisfactory."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at F. C. Duerson's drug store and ask what his customers report.
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Wilbur Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

During this long period Science Hill has had but three principals—Mrs. Tevis, the founder; the late Rev. Dr. W. T. Poynter, and the present principal his wife, Mrs. Clara Martin Poynter, ex-Parisian. Rev. Dr. Gilbert of Cincinnati, delivered the address on the evening of "Founder's Day."

Suicide Clause Held Valid.
The Supreme Court affirmed the validity of the suicide clause in assessment insurance policy. The decision was given in the case of Perry P. Tisch, Ashtabula county, Ohio, against the Protected Home Circle, an assessment society. Tisch had his wife's life insured for $1,000 and a short time thereafter she died by her own hand. The company refused to pay the policy, claiming that the suicide agreement was valid, and has now been sustained by all courts.

Fertilizer as an Insecticide.

The Hessian fly is one of the principal enemies of the wheat crop, the minimum annual damage due to it being estimated at about 10 per cent. of the product in the chief wheat-growing sections of this country, which indicates an annual loss of 40,000,000 bushels and over. An injury of from 60 per cent. to a total failure of the crop is not infrequent in certain localities, and the resulting loss is proportionately greater. It is practically impossible to save a field once severely attacked by this fly, and under such circumstances it is better to plow the wheat under deeply and plant corn or other spring crop. In case of mild infestation, the best procedure is the prompt use of fertilizers, which may enable the wheat to tiller satisfactorily, to yield a partial crop.—National Provisioner.

Duck Eggs.

Those who have hatched both duck eggs and hen eggs in an incubator claim that they cannot expect as good hatches from the duck eggs as from the hen eggs. The reason may be insufficiency of moisture, a duck egg requires much moisture to hatch well. Ducks are very near fish in kinship. The duck is returning to her nest brings moisture on her feathers. And yet enough ducks are usually hatched in the incubator to pay for the hatching in that way, though one does not understand all the requirements to get a good hatch. They are not liable to have the life crushed out of them in an incubator as under a hen, for, like a geese, they are very weak for the first day or two and easily killed. There are incubators made nowadays to hatch every kind of an egg from that of a humming bird to the ostrich.—20th Century Farmer.

Morality Not Sufficient.

How absurd for the mere moralist, in self-gratulatory comparison with a faltering child of the kingdom, to say, "I am as good a Christian as he!" No matter how exemplary his morals, unless he is "born from above," is filled with the spirit of Christ, bears his name, and does all to his glory, he is no sinner a Christian here, nor has a Christian's inheritance awaiting him "over there."

Turned Loose.

The City Court of Louisville turned loose William Ross, who shot and killed Nurse Boyd in a quarrel over a dollar which had figured in a game of craps. The dead man was one-legged. No wonder things are so bad in Louisville.

"Papa, what would you say if Mr. Featherbottom should ask your permission to marry me?" "Put your fingers in your ears, my daughter, and I will rehearse a few of the remarks I shall probably make if he ever does."—Chicago Tribune.

A DANGEROUS HABIT.

Gladstone's Physician Gives Warning Against a Growing American Custom.

The growing habit amongst Americans of taking a mint tablet or some other so called digestive after eating a hearty meal, is something that Sir Andrew Clarke, Mr. Gladstone's physician advises strongly against, saying: "It is absolutely dangerous to take into the stomach remedies which are popularly supposed to aid in the digestion of food."

There is nothing known to the science of medicine that can perform the work of the human stomach. Drugs do not and cannot digest the food. They simply decompose it. What can be more revolting or disgusting than the thought of taking something into the stomach that is going to turn the good food you have eaten into a mass of corruption.

The only way to overcome indigestion and its evil effects is to remove all irritation, congestion and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines, and Mi-on-na is the only agent known that will do this.

When a Mi-on-na tablet is taken before each meal every trace of irritation and inflammation is removed from the stomach and digestive system, and those organs will extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscle, steady nerves and a sound healthy body. If you suffer with headaches, indigestion, flatulency, spots before the eyes, vertigo, or dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, or any stomach trouble, get a fifty cent box of Mi-on-na from W. S. Lloyd, one of our most reliable druggists, whose faith in the remedy is shown by his offer to return the money if Mi-on-na does not give complete satisfaction. 311f

POULTRY NOTES.

Good dogs are a worthy accession to the farm, but there are very, very few dogs that form a paying combination with the poultry when allowed to run through the flock better skelter, at any and at all times.

Laying hens and good cows are nervous enough without the nerve racking trial of barking, racing dogs. If one would realize that a big scare will diminish the egg yield, much the same as it will the flow of milk, sudden scares would be more prohibited than they are.

I don't know that a thoroughbred flock is more easily scared than are the mixed ones. I know they don't make as much noise about it, but the effect of a scare is more lasting. There is reason for this, too. The breeders have surroundings arranged about as they should be, and thus the change is great to the ordinary farm yard. If conditions are different among the readers of this, as I trust they are, please pardon me. I write as it is among the farm yards near me—the average ones, I mean. Happily the average is growing smaller.

It is foolish to pay money and give trouble towards securing the nice flock, then from lack of care, indifference, and a little cash, allow the flock to relapse into mongrels, or worse. It should be the aim to improve the flock and the conditions governing the care, instead of retrograding.

Free range is a nice thing for poultry, but a yard or park, especially for poultry is as necessary to the fowls as it is to the peace of the owners. The yard need not be large. It should include the nesting place, nests and brooding coops, and, of course, some extra space. Inclose it with five foot poultry netting, (this with a wide baseboard will be high enough) and the soil should never be allowed to become filthy. Some work to be sure, but if done when needed to be, it is less work and much less worry than to allow the fowls access to every spot on the place, besides the ease in caring for the chicks. Open the gates about four o'clock, on all nice days, and allow the poultry a free run on the new pastures and fields, and they will get insects and greens and the cure for insomnia.—work.—E. C. in Island Farmer.

Spring Work.

Gardening has certainly begun in earnest in the market gardening and truck localities.

Hot beds may be found in different stages of growth, and green house plants are just beating their way through the surface soil. The preparation of the garden soil should be very carefully attended to in order to give the young set plants the best possible start.

A great many mistakes are made in plowing the ground; nine times out of ten the ground is plowed too wet and such ground can never be worked up and brought into a pulverized condition.

My Boat is Launched

The great, boundless ocean, as it surges and beats against the shore, has seemed always to suggest to the mind of man the idea of human life. There are certain crises in human life which furnish a striking parallel to the setting out upon a voyage across the sea. The launching of a little life into the world, and entering into a new career, and the beginning of a new year, are in themselves suggestive of this thought.

Now Then.

President Roosevelt is making a vigorous and rapid advancement in extending the civil service over government positions. The policy of the new administration will be that no Postmaster, from Presidential down to fourth class, can be removed except for cause. This means charges must be filed and sustained.

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder, or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1904, I took down with weakness and dropsy, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had had the same ailment, and I had taken them all. I was entirely cured by the time I had taken five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I am now as well as I ever was, and I am able to do my work as before. My family physician told me that if I had not taken Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep house without Theodor's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Fla.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach, cleans the constipated bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakens kidneys.

No Doctor

It is necessary in the home where Theodor's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, far from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Theodor's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, blood, headaches, diarrhoea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.

THE EMPEROR AND ALEXIEFF ON LIST OF CONDEMNED.

Thirty Thousand Workmen are Locked Out, and Serious Trouble is expected.

The industrial problem in St. Petersburg has again entered on a difficult stage, the owners of many factories having in consequence of constant backing by their employees, decided to close down works, locking out thirty thousand men. The idle workmen are in an ugly frame of mind. Trouble is expected, and it is believed that the wilder spirits are now not without bombs and other weapons of defense and reprisal.

It is openly stated among workmen that the fighting wing of the revolutionists has passed sentence of death on thirty high personages, the list being headed with the name of Grand Duke Alexieff, and ending with that of the Emperor, bearing also the name of the dowager Empress.

Fanaticism is not the same as faith.

She was a member of the Christian church. Funeral service was held at home Saturday and her remains were buried at Antioch graveyard. Mrs. Frisby came to Mt. Sterling eleven years ago. R. D. Apperson, President and General Manager.

We notice from the letterhead of the Lynchburg Traction & Light Co., of Lynchburg, Va., that the principal officer and general manager is R. D. Apperson, a boy of this place. Forty years ago his father, R. Apperson, Sr., died at this place, on the hill overlooking the depot. He left various members of his family, with R. D. Apperson, spoken of above, an infant in his mother's arms. A few years after his father's death he, together with his mother, brothers and sisters, moved to Little Rock, Ark. With but little capital he has struggled through life and mastered it. From our information he is a young man of more than ordinary ability, a high sense of honor and a business career that all Mt. WITHOUT BAIL Judge James Hargis, Sheriff Ed. Callahan and Elbert Hargis Are Held.

Senator Alex. Hargis is Allowed to Give Bond

On last Monday Judge Parker, of the Fayette Circuit Court, after having heard evidence and arguments in the Hargis-Callahan case asking to give bond, in rendering his decision said:

"Gentlemen, in the matter of bail in the Hargis case I have made as thorough a consideration of the question as is possible for me to do."

"As to the law it seems to me to be this, that in a capital charge, that is a charge which the penalty may be capital punishment, if nothing but the indictment exists the law presumes that the crime was committed by those charged with it and bail is not allowed."

"In a number of cases it has been held that in such proceedings the defense must introduce its testimony first. In this case I held that the burden of proof was upon the Commonwealth and I think this case was heard properly."

"There are some facts in this matter about which there is no dispute. I do not desire to sum up this testimony and want nothing that I may say at this time to be construed hereafter when these cases are called for trial as an expression of the guilt or innocence of the defendants."

"So far as the testimony in this case and in the Britton case is concerned the killing of Cockrell was without provocation. It was done openly, in day light, in the streets of Jackson. There can be no doubt about the nature of the crime. The indictment of the grand jury of itself ought to have great weight."

"The trial was set for next Tuesday, April 4th."

To take the drudgery out of your occupation regard it as a sacred task given you to make you a better citizen and to help the world along."

"The grateful cannot but be grateful."

valescent as Vinol. This is because Vinol contains in a concentrated form all of the vital principles of cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work.

Vinol purifies and enriches the blood, tones up the digestive organs, and strengthens every organ of the body so to do its work as nature intended.

Expensive Farming.

When one sees a farmer buying expensive grain and feeding it to stock that are housed in leaky yards or inclosures through which cold drafts blow and snow drifts around the animals, one concludes this husbandman is indulging in expensive farming. Any management of live stock or farms that does not return a handsome profit is expensive agriculture. Too many infer that expensive management of farms and live stock implies luxurious buildings and high priced feed. Unquestionably too much capital can be invested in appointments for remunerative operation of farms, but all rural buildings should be substantial and constructed for warmth as well as ventilation.

It is a wrong idea that young cattle should be unreasonably protected in order to give them a rugged constitution. The hardening process stunts the animals and prevents the development of their greatest commercial possibilities. Cattle raised in open yards, or cold inclosures, never display the thrift nor make the rapid growth which characterizes stock raised under more generous conditions. An animal that nominally should realize $60 at three years old, under general treatment, will be a slow seller at $30 under the exposure regime.

Wallace Shillito Dead.

Wallace Shillito, oldest son of the late John Shillito, of Cincinnati, a leading merchant of that city, is dead at his home in New York. He was president of the company founded by his father until his retirement from active business a few years ago.

Growers do not grow in grain.

CALIFORNIA

Do you want to live where the climate is mild the year round—where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, and where animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are more varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the division of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a competence?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital easily finds profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.

The Chicago, Union Pacific and North-Western Line is the most direct route to the Pacific Coast, and there are two fast through trains daily via this line, over the famous double-track railway between Chicago and the Missouri River. One-way Colonist tickets are on sale daily, March 1 to May 15, at the rate of $33.00 from Chicago, with correspondingly low rates from all points, give you an unusual chance to make the trip.

These tickets are good on daily and personally conducted excursions, on which a double berth in a Pullman tourist sleeping car from Chicago costs only $7.00. Round-trip tickets are always on sale from all points at reduced rates via the Chicago & North-Western, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Railways.

An Indisputable SAFE INVESTMENT

The material progress which our country is now, and has been making for the past decade of years, naturally brings to the surface numerous schemes of the "get-rich-quick" character that benefit only the promoters of such, at the expense of innocent investors.
In this age of genuine prosperity with every legitimate business booming, wages high, work in abundance, giving employment to all willing to earn, and products of the farm bringing best prices; there is little or no excuse for one not to join the army of money-makers.

The first and safest investment to make is to become a reader of the CINCINNATI ENQUIRER, the greatest and most reliable newspaper in the United States. With the facts, truth and information gleaned from its columns, one may become well qualified to reach out and secure his share of profit that always accrues from investments intelligently made.

The WEEKLY ENQUIRER costs but one dollar for one year's term. The SUNDAY ENQUIRER costs you two dollars for a year. The DAILY ENQUIRER (7 issues a week) you get for fourteen dollars a year.

Without the aid of a first-class newspaper, success in any enterprise becomes problematical. For ten cents you can secure a sample copy of each,

QUIRER. Address,

Each for Himself.

"We can not make a Christian, he must become one. We can awaken desire in his heart for the Christian life, and teach him what he must do, but he must do the doctrine for himself. No one else can have faith for him, nor repent of sin and renounce it, nor be baptized, nor now in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, nor be judged on the last day, nor be corrupted in heaven for him. All this is solely between himself and God."

There is no worship of God without work for men.

Died Suddenly.

Tightly gripping the bowl of a meerschaum pipe, in his under-clothes and day shirt, lying in bed with the cover pulled over his head, and his face swollen to four times its natural size, his faithful shepherd dog on watch at the door, John White, of Paris, son of the late G.
F. White, was found dead on the 21st in his room over the saloon of Major Henry Turner. Mr. White lately inherited a large fortune from the estate of his father, G.
F. White, one of the oldest and most widely known distillers in Kentucky.

Town Sued.

Mr. Brannan Grimes, of Har-rodsburg, has sued the town of Burgin for $5,000 for false arrest.
Mr. Grimes is employed by Mr. I.
C. James, the liverman, and in response to a telegram sent by students of Beaumont College, went to Burgin a few weeks ago to meet them with a conveyance, when he was arrested for running a hack without license. His suit is for the humiliation of arrest and for having been degraded in the eyes of his relatives, friends and the citizens of his community.

Many planters think that by ordering three to four year old trees, six to seven feet in height they gain a great deal in growth and time of bearing. But this is a serious mistake. Thirty, one and two year old trees will soon overtake the old trees and give better results.

Hives are a terrible torment to permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents. [34-41]

CAN'T SAVE IN NEW YORK.

Experience of Enterprising Stenographer Who Wanted to Accumulate a Bank Account.

"It is of no use," said the stenographer, taking the pencil out of her hair and replacing a refractory hairpin, relates the New York Press. "It is of no use trying to save any money. It's against the law in New York."

"Who's been trying to take your money?" asked the other girl.

"Trying to take it? They won't take it. That's the trouble. At least the right people won't take it. I went down to the bank the other day to open an account. I had two weeks' salary to deposit.
Before they would look at the roll of bills I carried they wanted me to tell them who I was and why I had a right to any money of my own. The clerk looked at me suspiciously over his glasses and told me I'd have to prove that my name was Smith and that I was—well, what I said I was as to age. He asked me how long I had been living here and a lot of other questions that were positively impertinent. When he had quite finished and knew more than I did about myself he said he would agree to take care of my money for me—if he decided that he liked the sound and the color of it. When I handed him out $30 he gasped!

"What!" he cried. "My dear madam, we never accept deposits of less than $200!" and then he looked at me as though I had been trying to pass a bad penny off on him.

"What did I do? Well, I just took a car to my dressmaker's, and she beamed on me and invited me in and told me how pretty I looked, and gave me a glass of wine, and, of course, I bought that burst onion suit that I had been determined to resist. Two hundred dollars! I don't see how anybody ever gets a chance to save $200 in this town!"

SUMMER COON.

I want to buy or lease that blue mud plant which is used in keeping the Mt. Sterling Streets in such good soft walking plight, tho I expect the city dads will want a large price for it as there bread and meat is all dependent on the plant. Tho I believe if the city tax payers could get a tail holt on the sepe stone plant and go in to the hole sell mortar business and use sum kind of hard material on the streets that would make barrels of money in the mortar buis. If I see the thing right I believe there could be dead loans of the Mt. Sterling mortar used in the building of the new capital at Frankfort, and more then that it would likely bring a larg cooper shop to Mt. Sterling. The mortar would have to be shipped in barrels. However, the mortar used on streets instead of hard material is all right so far as the buglars is concerned, they don't want to make any noise when the want to slip up be hind a fellow. I use to be in the buglar business a way back in my younger days, and I all ways prefurd sumthing soft to walk on so my foot steps could not be heard, that is why I say mortar covered streets is all right as far as a buglar is concerned. I don't want to say or do any thing that would hurt the mortar plant, it will bring a large price for good mortar in demand all over the U. S. States. The buty of that material is you don't hav to hammer and bang with sledges to get it in small pieces, all you hav to do is clean the weeds and grass off the top of ground load it carefully in easy runing spring wagons and dump it in clost to the cort house wall and she will do the rest. She is all right in damp weather, ready for the hod, but in dry windy weather she is hard to hold down. What an opening Mt. Sterling would be for a salt factory. While the city dads are making a good thing as it is, I believe the could do still better by using sumthing harder on the street and turning the sepe stone quarries all in to one huge mortar plant and git up against the right thing. Its a pity to waste the sepe stone so extravently on the streets when mortar is so valuable for building purposes all over the land.

Mt. Sterling is my home and I want to try and get her out of the mortar bed. Lets get to geather with our mud guns and clean her out for once. So if you will line this up in your next issue so all can see it I think all the people will be in favor of the project. No squar-tied, level headed citizen will object to a change from mortar and dust to hard brick in the business part of the town I don't think. Call the dads to geather and give them a tufur apasee and maybe they might rais a little smoke along the mud line. If the tufurs don't act alone add a little calamity water and the mill will grind smoothly on any subject.

SUMMER COON.

We take it for granted that all those who start out on the voyage of life, do so in the spirit of hopefulness. Most men who live, hope. Indeed, when we cease to hope, we may say that in a sense we have ceased to live. The Christian, of all others, has a right to look forward to brighter and better things. His goal is a goal of blessedness, and his defense is unassailable. Too, often, though, like the disciples on the Sea of Galilee, we set forth in our little boats alone, and fall to recognize our pilgrimage when he comes to help us in our hour of need.

Ennobling and Remunerative.

Earth has no other employ seen nobler nor remunerative as that of making Christians, and making Christians truly Christian. That should be our supreme vocation, and banking, merchandising, and other forms of secular serving, be considered merely as useful or ennobling avocations.

Growing Brighter.

The making of a Christian is not the moulding of a metal cast—finally and fully completed at once, and then subject only to discolution. It is the germination of the acorn and its growth into the mighty oak; it is "first the blade, then the corn, then the full corn in the ear;" it is the "shining of the light growing brighter and brighter unto the perfect day." No, the making of a Christian is not complete this side of eternity, and probably never is.

Human and Divine.

In the making of a Christian there must be a correlation of human and divine endeavors. It is man's to cultivate faith and to practice obedience, and it is God's to forgive sins, to adopt into his household and to endue with his Spirit. When in baptism one has rendered the obedience of faith, he is forgiven, adopted, Spirit-filled, and made a Christian.

A Very Sick Man.

It has leaked out that before going abroad Secretary Hay tendered his resignation to President Roosevelt, which the latter refused to accept. The condition of the Secretary's health is more serious than the public has been led to suppose. Before he left Washington he had several sinking spells.
